Ad Text It's hard to express how simple and deep this phrase is! Self-empowerment and self-identification is our way! We built America but white people invented their rules. Their system is not for us. Sometimes we can succeed in their game but it's better to concentrate on our own issues. When white people do something for us they see us as strangers anyway, we will always be "others" for them.

Thankfully there were a lot of African Americans who devoted their lives to community. Let's join them! Let's build America again! We talk not only about houses and infrastructure.

Nobody is going to rebuild your community. If they do, when they finish, it won't be your community any more.
